Lenka Subova, Czech Republic
 "Studying at UM was such a great experience. I learned and understood more of the differences in culture, religions and many other things and to me, this is a completely different world!"

Karen Charmaine Faller, Philippines
 "For a working student, the cost of living in Malaysia is way better as compared to other countries that I have been to. I can manage my living expenses here and I get to travel around KL and Malaysia."

Wataru Araki, Japan
 "UM provides every opportunity for its students to grow. Throughout my study years here, I have had plenty of chances to excel in my leadership and humanitarian skills which have further empowered my full potential in the real world"

Phiradet Chuainukoob, Thailand
 "I love the study environment at UM in that it enhances my learning experience. The lecturers are so friendly and we felt there is no gap or barriers. I learned new languages, and made a lot of friends from different parts of the world. I couldn't imagine I would be able to do that before"
